

RETRACE THE FOOTSTEPS OF LEWIS & CLARK. IN YOUR GOLF SHOES.

Whether you're reliving history or hitting the links, Stevenson, WA is the place for you.

Some 200 years ago Lewis & Clark first saw the tidewaters at Beacon Rock. It's a safe bet they didn't envision the ground they set upon would become a future ladies tee. But the awe they felt surrounded by the splendor of the Columbia River Gorge remains just as strong today.

Discover it for yourself along the miles of the Lewis & Clark Trail, or at one of the 6 area golf courses.

It's hard to pry yourself from the links, we know. But after a visit to town, we're certain you'll be glad you did. A stroll along the Rock Cove pathway or the Columbia River waterfront is a great way to take in our surroundings. Downtown Stevenson is home to unique shops, art galleries, and restaurants. Not to mention our award-winning local brewpub.

Just up the hill from downtown is the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum. Venture back in time. View the cataclysmic formation of the Gorge and artifacts from Native American tribes and early settlers in the area.

In Stevenson, there's something for everyone. Head off on your favorite outdoor activity, or try something new. Perhaps just sit at Bob's Beach and watch the kiteboarders' colorful sails, as they catch the winds above the river. Heck, while you're at it, break out the laptop and enjoy Stevenson's free Wi-Fi.
